

Summer Programs

The Career Partnership does not endorse any of these programs. They are listed to provide a service to parents and students for your own investigation.

Actuarial and Math Careers

What: Summer programs for students interested in math/actuarial science careers. Designed especially for academically talented African American, Hispanic, and Native American students.

Where: Illinois State University

Adventures in Filmmaking

What: Students will participate in all aspects on filmmaking – from script to screen – in this one-week program.

Where: Western Illinois University, Macomb

Contact: www.wiu.edu/noncredit or (309) 298-1911

Anti-Cruelty Society's Veterinary Mentoring Program

What: An academic program that introduces 10th-12th graders to the many areas of science that they will encounter in veterinary school. Students must have at least a 3.0.

Where: Anti-Cruelty Society in downtown Chicago; one Saturday per month, with a trip to the vet school in Urbana

Contact: Tammie Bouschor, Community Event Coordinator – (312) 644-8338 ex. 344 or tbouschor@anticruelty.org

Argonne National Laboratory

What: Pre-college research participation program for graduating high school seniors. Must have a 3.75 GPA on a 4.0 scale.

Where: Argonne, IL

Contact: Students can write directly to the following address:

Pre-College Research Participation Program

Division of Educational Programs

Argonne National Laboratory

Argonne, IL 60439-4845

Bradley University Summer Enrichment Program

What: One-week, residential summer enrichment programs. Two sessions – “Nursing” and “Get in the Game Leadership Enrichment Camp”

Where: Peoria

Contact: www.bradley.edu/ccd/summerenrichment or (309) 677-2404

Chicago College of Pharmacy Career Explorers Program

What: Students completing their junior or senior year may apply for this six-week, intensive program. Students both work as a pharmacy tech at a Walgreens or Osco and take a course at Midwestern University.

Where: Downers Grove

Contact: www.midwestern.edu (search Career Explorers Program) or (630) 971-6417 Consolidated

Chicago Conservation Community Crew Internship

What: A program through Friends of the Forest, offering students 15-19 the opportunity to work on conservation-related projects like removing invasive plants that harm habitats, native gardening, and trail and fence building. Includes a $1925 stipend

Where: Various forest preserves in the Chicagoland area

Contact: To request an application, contact Alice Brandon, Conservation Director at (312) 356-9900 or alice@fotfp.org. Application deadline is May 1st.

Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising

What: Three day program for students interested in fashion, interior design, jewelry design, marketing, and entertainment

Where: At all four FIDM campus on different dates (San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Orange County)

Contact: <http://fidm.edu/admissions/days-of-fashion/index.html> or (800) 624-1200

Illinois Wesleyan University Summer Music Institutes and Camps

What: Offers several camps for music and music composition.

Where: Bloomington

Contact: www2.iwu.edu/music/k12 or (309) 556-3061

Indiana University Summer Precollege Programs

What: Summer programs in a variety of subject areas

Where: Bloomington, IN

Contact: www.summer.indiana.edu or (812) 855-5046

Iowa Young Writers Studio

What: A two-week program residential program offering classes in fiction, poetry, and creative writing.

Where: University of Iowa, Iowa City

Contact: www.uiowa.edu/youngwriters or (319) 355-4209

Junior Statesmen of America

What: Summer school courses on the campus of four elite college campuses. Immerse yourself in politics and government while making new friends and developing leadership skills.

Where: (for 2009) Georgetown, Yale, Princeton, Stanford

Contact: www.jsa.org or (800) 334-5353

Kendall College Summer Camps for Career Insight

What: Offers a Culinary Camp as well as a Backpack to Boardroom Camp

Where: Chicago

Contact: www.kendall.edu or (773) 525-6110 Consolidated High School District 230 does not endorse any summer program providers. This is for your information only.

Kettering University Precollege Programs

What: Several programs for students to explore their interests in science and math.

Where: Kettering University, Flint, MI

Contact: www.kettering.edu/futurestudents/precollege or (800) 955-4464

Lake Forest College Summer Writing and Thinking Program

What: A two-week residential summer program who want to explore writing in a nontraditional classroom setting without concern for grades.

Where: Lake Forest

Contact: www.lakeforest.edu/wtw or (847) 735-5234

Law Camp

What: A five-day program for students who are interested in careers in the legal profession

Where: Chicago

Contact: Camp Director – Jerome Watkins (312) 409-9480

Loyola University Pre-Collegiate Summer Scholars Program

What: Three or six week summer programs in seven areas: Law and Social Justice, Environmental Biology, Creative Writing, Entrepreneurship, Broadcast Journalism, Theatrical Experience, and Museum Studies. Open to students who have completed their sophomore or junior years in high school.

Where: Loyola University Chicago

Contact: www.luc.edu/summerscholars or (312) 915-6565

Michigan State University Summer Engineering Programs

What: Two programs for high school students – Women in Engineering and the High School Engineering Institute

Where: Michigan State University, East Lansing

Contact: www.egr.msu.edu/future-engineer/programs

Michigan Tech's Summer Youth Programs

What: Programs and courses in aerospace, computers, engineering, journalism, environmental science, sports science, and video production.

Where: Michigan Tech University in Houghton

Contact: www.youthprograms.mtu.edu or (888)PRECOLLEGE

Missouri University of Science and Technology

What: Over a dozen math and science-related programs for students of all ages.

Where: Rolla, MO

Contact: www.precollege.mst.edu or (800) 522-0938